

6th Reflection: Prelude to My Eucharistic Reign

Love Crucified Encounter:
You Become My living host as I am Your Living Host
Saturday, 9/13/25

Meditation from Jesus:

My little one, you are being possessed by My Spirit as you remain, entering into My Eucharistic life and discovering how I continue to love, fully present, hidden in the Eucharist. This is the prelude to My Eucharistic Reign. Through the impulse of the Holy Spirit, as one with the Reign of My Mother, souls will come to know Me and love Me alive in the Eucharist. Like you, My little mustard seed, through you, will come to experience My love in suffering in My Sacred Heart, present and continuously pulsating, bringing new life to those whose hearts approach Me in repentance. They, too, will discover how I love them, and they, like you, will begin to love as one heart with Me. This union of countless souls loving as one with Me in My sorrows and tears will destroy the forces of Satan and establish My Kingdom on earth. Therefore, remain in silence, gazing at Me, and I will teach you and guide you into My Eucharistic life. I will guide all your meditations; therefore, be at peace, glorifying Me continuously. 7/26/25

God's few hidden victim souls participating in His Eucharistic life with Mary will defeat Satan & establish His Kingdom on earth

Abraham asked God if He would spare Sodom if there were 50, 45, 40, 30, 20, or 10 faithful people, and God answered each time, "Yes" (Genesis 18:20-32). God is infinitely good and never desires our destruction. In fact, through the few, His little ones, He always works the salvation of the many.

The immense sorrow of God, hidden in the Eucharist, is that the vast majority of people continue to offend such a good God and ignore Him; they continue to live their lives as if He does not exist. God is greatly offended by the pride and obstinacy of men. Jesus groans and cries for this grave sin against Abba, Father, and remains, like Abraham, asking the Father that if He finds ten souls that love Him with all their heart, soul, mind, and strength, will He spare the world from destruction? And Abba, in His goodness, replies yes, for the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ were not useless and powerless.

Do you think that My death and resurrection were useless and powerless? No, My little one, I am making all things new, yet few believe, they have not come to know Me, My Father, and the power of the Holy Spirit. 3/14/19

Jesus continues from the Tabernacles of the world seeking the few meek, humble, docile, childlike, pure, and innocent souls and draws them, through the power of the Holy Spirit and the intercession of Mother Mary, into His Sacred Heart to offer a holy and acceptable sacrifice of praise to the Father for His glory and the salvation of the multitudes.

Gideon (Judges 6:11-24) is another example of how God uses the little ones to accomplish His wondrous works. The Lord chose Gideon to deliver Israel from the hand of Midian (6:14). Gideon was perplexed and asked, "Please, Lord, how can I deliver Israel? My clan is the weakest and I am the least in my family (6:15)." The Lord answered Gideon, saying, 'But I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one man (6:16)."

As we travel through salvation history, we see this same story repeat itself. God chooses the little ones of the world to confound the mighty ones. This same story is now being repeated with God's little mustard seed. Is He not speaking to us the exact words that He spoke to Gideon? Jesus, on August 17th, 2025, spoke to us and reiterated that the world is being made new through His little ones who are pure and childlike, the meek and humble who are listening to His voice and believing in His simple plan to establish His Kingdom on earth:

Believe that by remaining as one heart with Me in My continuous agony of love in the Eucharist, countless souls are being saved, and My Kingdom is being established on earth. Such a simple plan from the God who loves you, and therefore, can only be received and understood by those whose hearts are pure and childlike. The world will be conquered for Christ through the meek and humble of heart. Remain little, My little mustard seed, suffering all as one with Me. Have faith, for the world is being made new for the glory of God. Go in peace.

The Lord has been speaking to me, to us, desiring with all His Heart to transform us into His saints of these end times through the treasure He has given to us —The Simple Path. The fruit of the few who listen to His voice and obey every word He speaks is the transformation of the old men/women into a new creation. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus lets us know that these are the souls prepared with unshakable faith, hope, and love to withstand the great persecution and storms of life.

"Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I tell you? I will show you what someone is like who comes to me, hears my words, and acts on them. That one is like a man building a house, who dug deeply and laid the foundation on rock; when a flood arose, the river burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built. (Luke 6:46-48)

The long process from the foot of the Cross, into the passage of the pierced side of Christ, into the furnace of His Sacred Heart, into Mary's solitude in the cloister of her Immaculate Heart, brings us to live as one heart with Jesus in His Eucharistic life in the embrace of Abba. As Jesus explained in the message of 7/26/25, this is the "prelude to the Eucharistic Reign." The union of loving as one heart with Jesus in His sorrows and tears will destroy the forces of Satan and establish His Kingdom on earth. The ways of God are not the ways of the world.

I will end this reflection with the words from our Blessed Mother given on the Feast of the Assumption, August 15th, 2023. Our Lady brought us the Father's invitation to enter the cloister of her Immaculate Heart. It summarizes God's plan of salvation for these decisive times and our purpose as one heart with Jesus and Mary:

I am God's Queen Mother, for I was chosen from the beginning of time to be the New Eve and bring into the world the New Adam to break the bondage of slavery brought to mankind from the disobedience of Adam and Eve. This is the love of our Father.

You have come to know the love and goodness of our Father through your humility to listen and obey the voice of my Son. This obedience to Him has purchased for you the knowledge of Abba's love. This knowledge is new life. The knowledge of the Father and His love, through your participation in the sufferings of my Son, has purchased for you the title of my maiden of the cloister of my Immaculate heart. This privilege is given to few women by the Father, but it is being given to you and the MOC following you as God's chosen one. Enter with the MOC my cloister and choose to remain as one with me, suffering my Son's interior martyrdom, which continues in His Eucharistic presence on earth.

This cloister is only reserved for the women and men who choose to remain in the sorrows of my Son's Sacred Heart because humanity continues to not give glory to ABBA by loving Him with all their hearts, souls, and might. Jesus came to earth to reveal the goodness and love of our Father through His life, death, and resurrection. Yet, humanity continues to reject this gift purchased for all through the pouring out of His precious Blood and leaving you the gift of the Holy Spirit through all the sacraments of the Church.

My maidens are called to remain in the sorrows of God, through His Son, as one with me, to repair such a great offense to our good God. These maidens of reparation and consolation who live in my solitude will be blessed by God with the crown of great glory reserved in heaven for the few on earth who respond to this invitation.

Bring this invitation to all the MOC, but before they each give their Fiat, they must promise to live silence, the prayer of remaining in God's sorrows, simplicity, poverty of spirit, and perfect obedience to me as your Queen Mother and Mother of God. Go in peace, and know that I await each of you in heaven for the glory of God. 8/15/23

Silent meditation:

- Examine your conscience on how you are living the five promises Mary asked of us.
